Textile inspector

SGR inspection is a quality control service provider in Asia, product inspections, factory technical and social audits, testing and consulting service, we are constantly looking for new talent. If quality and perfection are your edge, join us! All jobs can lead to higher positions and development opportunities!

Job Descrition

Conduct quality control and quality assurance inspections on site according to client's requirements and related standards

Requirements

• College degree. Major in Textile Engineering or Clothing Design and Engineering
• Fluent in both written & oral English
• Minimum 3years working experience in the QC/QA industry
• Familiar and conversant with safety and regulatory standards AQL standards
• Honest,independent,well‐ ‐organized,strong sense of responsibility
• Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
• Willing and able to travel within region

Responsibilities

• Responsible for Aparel & Textile inspections
• Conducting inspections on factory sites
• Send report and photos to office after inspection
• Write inspection report and draft inspection certificate
• Prepare inspection checklist per client input and/or testing protocol
• Assist QC manager in resolving customer complaints

At SGR, find the opportunity to really make an impact and grow in a fast-paced and multicultural work environment!

Please forward your application in English, including details of your relevant qualifications and experience, contact address and telephone number to hr@sgrinspection-asia.com.